ESSENTIAL INSPIRATION FOR CREATIVE MINDS

USP INSPIRE:
SPOOKY SCI-FI

Sci-fi styles are influencing fashion, beauty and lifestyle.

As The Matrix Resurrections is set for release in December, XX Revolution has brought out a limited-edition makeup collection in collaboration with the movie franchise, in time for Halloween.

Bottega Veneta has launched The Maze in Seoul, a sensorial, triangular labyrinthine construction in the label's signature neon green tone.

Recent fashion collections feature the use of leathers, futuristic sunglasses and tech-inspired prints, with Balenciaga and Vetements being key brands encouraging the trend.
